

Yorkshire Urban and Rural Teaching Partnership for Social Work World Social Work Day ‘Leaving No One Behind’ Event

15th March 2022, 1.30 – 5.00pm

(Event to be held virtually, booking can be accessed here)

- 13.30pm Welcome and an introduction to the Teaching Partnership: Sam Clayton (Chair of Strategic Board)
- 14.00pm ‘Leaving No One Behind’ presentation and question-and-answer
Dr Anna Gupta - Professor of Social Work at Royal Holloway University of London and co-editor of ESWRA/Policy Press Research in Social Work series.
- 15.15pm Break
- 15.30pm Video ‘the experience of young people in care’
- 15.45pm Connor’s story
- 15:50pm Breakout room discussions – valuing lived experience

Focusing on three questions, with 10-15 mins on each:

1. What do we currently do well in working inclusively with people, that is 'leaving no-one behind'?
 2. What might we do better, and what is preventing us from doing this?
 3. What can the Teaching Partnership do to support this?
- 16.30pm Key feedback from breakout rooms
 - 16.45pm Final remarks and close