

Yorkshire Urban and Rural Teaching Partnership
'Respecting diversity through joint social action'
World Social Work Week Event

Wednesday 22nd March 2022, 9.00am – 12.00pm

- 9.00am Welcome and an introduction: Sam Clayton (Chair of Strategic Board)
- 9.15am Keynote speech: 'Thinking and doing differently' in an approach informed by intersectionality by:
-  Brid Featherstone - Professor of Social Work at University of Huddersfield
- 10.30am Break
- 10.45am Panel session hosted by Jenny Threlfall (University of York) – 'Respecting Diversity Through Joint Action in Social Work' with:
-  Rob Moriarty (Leeds Centre for Integrated Living)
  -  Shantel Thomas (BASW)
  -  Violet Cannon (Yorkshire Gypsy Traveller Organisation)
- 11.45am Final remarks and close: Sam Clayton (Chair of Strategic Board)